

135A.10 Prohibited acts — fraudulently claiming accreditation — civil penalty.

A local board of health or local public health agency that imparts or conveys, or causes to be imparted or conveyed, information claiming that it is accredited pursuant to this chapter or that uses any other term to indicate or imply it is accredited without being accredited under this chapter is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars per day for each offense. However, nothing in this chapter shall be construed to restrict a local board of health or local public health agency from providing any services for which it is duly authorized.
