

504.1031 Approval by third persons.

The articles of a corporation may require that an amendment to the articles or bylaws be approved in writing by a specified person or persons other than the board. Such a provision in the articles may only be amended with the approval in writing of the person or persons specified in the provision.

2004 Acts, ch 1049, §123, 192