The child support recovery unit is designated as the entity of the state to administer income withholding in accordance with the procedures specified for keeping adequate records to document, track, and monitor support payments on cases subject to Tit. IV-D of the federal Social Security Act. Until October 1, 1999, the clerks of the district court are designated as the entities for administering income withholding on cases which are not subject to Tit. IV-D. Beginning October 1, 1999, the collection services center is designated as the entity for administering income withholding for cases which are not subject to Tit. IV-D. The collection services center's responsibilities for administering income withholding in cases not subject to Tit. IV-D are limited to the receipt, recording, and disbursement of income withholding payments and to responding to requests for information on the current status of support payments pursuant to section 252B.13A. Notwithstanding section 622.53, in cases where the court or the child support recovery unit is enforcing a foreign judgment through income withholding, a certified copy of the underlying judgment is sufficient proof of authenticity.
