

331.216 Membership on appointive boards, committees and commissions.

Unless otherwise provided by state statute, a supervisor may serve as a member of any appointive board, commission, or committee of this state, a political subdivision of this state, or a nonprofit corporation or agency receiving county funds.

[C81, §331.28; S81, §331.216; 81 Acts, ch 117, §215]

Referred to in §331.261