

357J.3 Motion for public hearing.

1. The board of supervisors of any county having a population of at least sixteen thousand nine hundred twenty-five but not more than sixteen thousand nine hundred fifty, according to the 2000 certified federal census, shall, on the board's own motion, hold a public hearing concerning the establishment of a proposed district. The motion shall include a statement containing the following information:

- a. The need for fire protection service and emergency medical service.
- b. The geographic boundaries of the district to be served.
- c. The approximate number of families in the district.
- d. The proposed personnel, equipment, and facilities to provide the fire protection service and emergency medical service.

2. The board of supervisors shall notify the state fire marshal's office that a motion has been adopted to form a district.

2008 Acts, ch 1152, §3

Referred to in §357J.5