

515.113 Existing statutes — waiver.

Nothing contained in sections 515.109 and 515.112, nor any provisions or conditions in the standard form of policy provided for in section 515.109, shall be deemed to repeal or in any way modify any existing statutes or to prevent any insurance company issuing such policy, from waiving any of the provisions or conditions contained therein, if the waiver of such provisions or conditions shall be in the interest of the insured.

[S13, §1758-d; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9020; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §515.141]

2007 Acts, ch 152, §47, 76

CS2007, §515.113