

669.6 Applicable rules.

In suits under this chapter, the forms of process, writs, pleadings, and actions, and the practice and procedure, shall be in accordance with the rules of civil procedure. The same provisions for counterclaims, setoff, interest upon judgments, and payment of judgments, are applicable as in other suits brought in the district court. However, no writ of execution shall issue against the state or any state agency by reason of a judgment under this chapter.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §25A.6]

83 Acts, ch 186, §10013, 10201

C93, §669.6