489.208 Certificate of existence or authorization.

   a. The company’s name.
   b. That the company was duly formed under the laws of this state, the date of its formation, and the period of its duration if less than perpetual.
   c. Whether all fees, taxes, and penalties due under this chapter or other law to the secretary of state have been paid.
   d. Whether the company’s most recent biennial report required by section 489.209 has been filed by the secretary of state.
   e. Whether the secretary of state has administratively dissolved the company.
   f. Whether the company has delivered to the secretary of state for filing a statement of dissolution.
   g. That a statement of termination has not been filed by the secretary of state.
   h. Other facts of record in the office of the secretary of state which are specified by the person requesting the certificate.

   a. The company’s name and any alternate name adopted under section 489.805, subsection 1, for use in this state.
   b. That the company is authorized to transact business in this state.
   c. Whether all fees, taxes, and penalties due under this chapter or other law to the secretary of state have been paid.
   d. Whether the company’s most recent biennial report required by section 489.209 has been filed by the secretary of state.
   e. That the secretary of state has not revoked the company’s certificate of authority and has not filed a notice of cancellation.
   f. Other facts of record in the office of the secretary of state which are specified by the person requesting the certificate.

3. Subject to any qualification stated in the certificate, a certificate of existence or certificate of authorization issued by the secretary of state is conclusive evidence that the limited liability company is in existence or the foreign limited liability company is authorized to transact business in this state.
