

322.31 Denial of license.

The department may deny the application of any person for a license as a manufacturer, distributor, or wholesaler, if after reasonable notice and a hearing the department determines that such applicant has violated any provision of this chapter and may revoke or suspend any such license that has been issued if the department shall determine after reasonable notice and a hearing that such licensee has violated any provision of this chapter.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §322.31]

97 Acts, ch 108, §39