554.13212 Implied warranty of merchantability.

1. Except in a finance lease, a warranty that the goods will be merchantable is implied in a lease contract if the lessor is a merchant with respect to goods of that kind.

- 2. Goods to be merchantable must be at least such as
- a. pass without objection in the trade under the description in the lease agreement;
- b. in the case of fungible goods, are of fair average quality within the description;
- c. are fit for the ordinary purposes for which goods of that type are used;
- d. run, within the variation permitted by the lease agreement, of even kind, quality, and quantity within each unit and among all units involved;
- e. are adequately contained, packaged, and labeled as the lease agreement may require; and
 - f. conform to any promises or affirmations of fact made on the container or label.
 - 3. Other implied warranties may arise from course of dealing or usage of trade.
