1, §554.13407

554.13407 Irrevocable promises — finance leases.

1. In the case of a finance lease that is not a consumer lease the lessee's promises under the lease contract become irrevocable and independent upon the lessee's acceptance of the goods.

- 2. A promise that has become irrevocable and independent under subsection 1:
- a. is effective and enforceable between the parties, and by or against third parties including assignees of the parties, and
- b. is not subject to cancellation, termination, modification, repudiation, excuse, or substitution without the consent of the party to whom the promise runs.
- 3. This section does not affect the validity under any other law of a covenant in any lease contract making the lessee's promises irrevocable and independent upon the lessee's acceptance of the goods.
