321.201 Cancellation and return of license — prohibition from issuance of commercial driver's license for false information.

- 1. a. The department may cancel a driver's license upon determination of any of the following:
 - (1) That the licensee was not entitled to the issuance of the license.
- (2) That the licensee failed to give required or correct information or committed fraud in making the application.
 - b. Upon cancellation, the licensee shall immediately return the license to the department.
- 2. a. Upon cancellation of a commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit for providing false information or committing fraud in the application, the applicant shall not operate a commercial motor vehicle in this state and shall not be issued a license valid to operate a commercial motor vehicle for a period of sixty days.
- b. The department shall disqualify the commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit of a person convicted or suspected of fraud related to the testing for or issuance of a commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit. The department shall adopt rules to administer this paragraph that substantially comply with 49 C.F.R. §383.73(k).
