

321N.5 Disclosure requirements.

A transportation network company shall disclose all of the following information to a transportation network company driver in writing before the driver may accept a request from a rider for a prearranged ride on the company's digital network:

1. The types, amounts, terms, and limits of automobile insurance provided by the company to the driver while the driver uses a personal vehicle in connection with the use of the company's digital network.

2. That the driver's own automobile insurance policy, depending on the policy's terms, may not provide any coverage while the driver is logged on to the company's digital network and is available to receive requests for a prearranged ride, or while the driver is engaged in a prearranged ride.
