546B.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

- 1. a. "Advertising" or "advertisement" means any of the following:
- (1) Any written or printed communication made for the purpose of soliciting, describing, or promoting veterans benefits appeal services, including but not limited to a brochure, letter, pamphlet, newspaper, telephone listing, periodical, or other writing.
- (2) Any directory listing caused or permitted by a person to be made available which indicates that veterans benefits appeal services are being offered.
- (3) Any radio, television, computer network, or similar airwave or electronic transmission which solicits or promotes a person offering veterans benefits appeal services.
 - b. "Advertising" or "advertisement" does not include any of the following:
- (1) Any printing or writing used on buildings, uniforms, or badges, where the purpose of the writing is for identification.
- (2) Any printing or writing in a memorandum or other communication used in the ordinary course of business where the sole purpose of the writing is other than the solicitation or promotion of veterans benefits appeal services.
 - 2. "Veteran" means as defined in section 35.1.
- 3. "Veterans benefits appeal services" means services which a veteran might reasonably require in order to appeal a denial of federal or state veterans benefits, including but not limited to denials of disability, limited-income, home loan, insurance, education and training, burial and memorial, and dependent and survivor benefits.
- 4. "Veterans benefits services" means services which a veteran, or a family member of a veteran, might reasonably utilize in order to obtain federal, state, or county veterans benefits.
- 5. "Written disclosure statement" means the written disclosure statement developed by the department of veterans affairs pursuant to section 35A.5, subsection 18.
