565B.9 Manner of creating custodial property and effecting transfer — designation of initial custodian — control.

- 1. Custodial property is created and a transfer is made whenever:
- a. An uncertificated security or a certificated security in registered form is either:
- (1) Registered in the name of the transferor, an adult other than the transferor, or a trust company, followed in substance by the words: "as custodian for (name of minor) under the Iowa Uniform Transfers to Minors Act"; or
- (2) Delivered if in certificated form, or any document necessary for the transfer of an uncertificated security is delivered, together with any necessary endorsement to an adult other than the transferor or to a trust company as custodian, accompanied by an instrument in substantially the form set forth in subsection 2;
- - c. The ownership of a life or endowment insurance policy or annuity contract is either:
- (2) Assigned in writing delivered to an adult other than the transferor or to a trust company whose name in the assignment is followed in substance by the words: "as custodian for (name of minor) under the Iowa Uniform Transfers to Minors Act";

- f. An interest in any property not described in paragraphs "a" through "e" is transferred to an adult other than the transferor or to a trust company by a written instrument in substantially the form set forth in subsection 2. An interest in any property as used in this paragraph does not include a certificate of title issued by a department or agency of a state or of the United States which evidences title to tangible personal property.
- 2. An instrument in the following form satisfies the requirements of subsection 1, paragraph "a", subparagraph (2), and paragraph "f":
