

711.4 Extortion.

1. A person commits extortion if the person does any of the following with the purpose of obtaining for oneself or another anything of value, tangible or intangible, including labor or services:

- a. Threatens to inflict physical injury on some person, or to commit any public offense.
- b. Threatens to accuse another of a public offense.
- c. Threatens to expose any person to hatred, contempt, or ridicule.
- d. Threatens to harm the credit or business or professional reputation of any person.
- e. Threatens to take or withhold action as a public officer or employee, or to cause some public official or employee to take or withhold action.
- f. Threatens to testify or provide information or to withhold testimony or information with respect to another's legal claim or defense.
- g. Threatens to wrongfully injure the property of another.

2. Extortion is a class "D" felony.

3. It is a defense to a charge of extortion that the person making a threat other than a threat to commit a public offense, reasonably believed that the person had a right to make such threats in order to recover property, or to receive compensation for property or services, or to recover a debt to which the person has a good faith claim.
