633B.118 Agent's resignation — notice.

Unless the power of attorney provides for a different method for an agent's resignation, an agent may resign by giving notice to the principal and, if the principal is incapacitated, to any of the following:

- 1. The conservator or guardian, if a conservator or guardian has been appointed for the principal, and any coagent or successor agent.
- 2. If there is no conservator, guardian, or coagent or successor agent, the agent may give notice to any of the following:
- a. The principal's caregiver, including but not limited to a caretaker as defined in section 235B.2 or 235E.1.
- b. Any other person reasonably believed by the agent to have sufficient interest in the principal's welfare.
- c. A governmental agency having regulatory authority to protect the welfare of the principal.
