

305.7 Administration.

The department of cultural affairs, through the state archives and records program, is the primary agency responsible for providing administrative personnel and services for the commission.

2003 Acts, ch 92, §10