

543D.11 Certification by reciprocity.

1. If, in the determination by the board, another state is deemed to have substantially equivalent certification requirements, an applicant who is certified under the laws of the other state may obtain a certificate as a certified real estate appraiser upon terms and conditions as determined by the board.

2. The board may recognize on a temporary basis the certification or license of an appraiser issued by another state, including where the property to be appraised is part of a federally related transaction. An appraiser engaging in such temporary practice shall apply for and obtain a temporary practice permit from the board before performing any services in relation to an appraisal, is subject to the full regulatory jurisdiction of the board, and is governed by the laws and rules administered by the board.
