554.8103 Rules for determining whether certain obligations and interests are securities or financial assets.

- 1. A share or similar equity interest issued by a corporation, business trust, joint stock company, or similar entity is a security.
- 2. An "investment company security" is a security. "Investment company security" means a share or similar equity interest issued by an entity that is registered as an investment company under the federal investment company laws, an interest in a unit investment trust that is so registered, or a face-amount certificate issued by a face-amount certificate company that is so registered. Investment company security does not include an insurance policy or endowment policy or annuity contract issued by an insurance company.
- 3. An interest in a partnership or limited liability company is not a security unless it is dealt in or traded on securities exchanges or in securities markets, its terms expressly provide that it is a security governed by this Article, or it is an investment company security. However, an interest in a partnership or limited liability company is a financial asset if it is held in a securities account.
- 4. A writing that is a security certificate is governed by this Article and not by Article 3, even though it also meets the requirements of that Article. However, a negotiable instrument governed by Article 3 is a financial asset if it is held in a securities account.
- 5. An option or similar obligation issued by a clearing corporation to its participants is not a security, but is a financial asset.
- 6. A commodity contract, as defined in section 554.9102, subsection 1, paragraph "o", is not a security or a financial asset.
- 7. A document of title is not a financial asset unless section 554.8102, subsection 1, paragraph "i", subparagraph (1), subparagraph division (c) applies.
