

261H.6 Training — first amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

Each public institution of higher education shall provide training on free speech under the first amendment to the Constitution of the United States to all students, faculty, and staff on an annual basis, which elected officials and staff shall be permitted to attend.

2021 Acts, ch 130, §2