504.202 Articles of incorporation.

- 1. The articles of incorporation shall set forth all of the following:
- a. A corporate name for the corporation that satisfies the requirements of section 504.401.
- b. The address of the corporation's initial registered office and the name of its initial registered agent at that office.
 - c. The name and address of each incorporator.
- d. Whether the corporation will have members. A corporation incorporated prior to January 1, 2005, may state whether it will have members in either the articles of incorporation or in the corporate bylaws.
- e. For corporations incorporated after January 1, 2005, provisions not inconsistent with law regarding the distribution of assets on dissolution.
 - 2. The articles of incorporation may set forth any of the following:
- a. The purpose for which the corporation is organized, which may be, either alone or in combination with other purposes, the transaction of any lawful activity.
 - b. The names and addresses of the individuals who are to serve as the initial directors.
 - c. Provisions not inconsistent with law regarding all of the following:
 - (1) Managing and regulating the affairs of the corporation.
- (2) Defining, limiting, and regulating the powers of the corporation, its board of directors, and members, or any class of members.
- (3) The characteristics, qualifications, rights, limitations, and obligations attaching to each or any class of members.
- d. (1) A provision eliminating or limiting the liability of a director to the corporation or its members for money damages for any action taken, or any failure to take any action, as a director, except liability for any of the following:
- (a) The amount of a financial benefit received by a director to which the director is not entitled.
 - (b) An intentional infliction of harm on the corporation or its members.
 - (c) A violation of section 504.835.
 - (d) An intentional violation of criminal law.
- (2) A provision set forth in the articles of incorporation pursuant to this paragraph shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for an act or omission that occurs prior to the date when the provision becomes effective. The absence of a provision eliminating or limiting the liability of a director pursuant to this paragraph shall not affect the applicability of section 504.901.
- e. A provision permitting or requiring a corporation to indemnify a director for liability, as defined in section 504.851, subsection 5, to a person for any action taken, or any failure to take any action, as a director except liability for any of the following:
 - (1) Receipt of a financial benefit to which the person is not entitled.
 - (2) Intentional infliction of harm on the corporation or its members.
 - (3) A violation of section 504.835.
 - (4) Intentional violation of criminal law.
- f. Any provision that under this chapter is required or permitted to be set forth in the bylaws.
 - 3. An incorporator named in the articles must sign the articles.
- 4. The articles of incorporation need not set forth any of the corporate powers enumerated in this chapter.
