

524.1206 Identification of legally chartered name of bank — required use of name.

A bank, at its locations in this state, shall identify its principal place of business, any bank office, or any bank branch in a manner which includes its legally chartered name or a reasonable variation of such name. A bank doing business in this state electronically shall identify its legally chartered name in any online, mobile, or digital customer interface. The legally chartered name of the state bank, out-of-state bank, or national bank shall be used in all legal documents of such bank.
