

475A.4 Utilities board records.

The consumer advocate has free access to all the files, records, and documents in the office of the utilities board except:

1. Personal information in confidential personnel records of the utilities board.
2. Records which represent and constitute the work product of the general counsel of the utilities board, and records of confidential communications between utilities board members and their general counsel, where the records relate to a proceeding before the board in which the consumer advocate is a party or a proceeding in any state or federal court in which both the board and the consumer advocate are parties.
3. Customer information of a confidential nature which could jeopardize the customer's competitive status and is provided by the utility to the board. Such information shall be provided to the consumer advocate by the board, if the board determines it to be in the public interest.
