537.1102 Purposes — rules of construction.

- 1. This chapter shall be liberally construed and applied to promote its underlying purposes and policies.
 - 2. The underlying purposes and policies of this chapter are to:
- a. Simplify, clarify and modernize the law governing retail installment sales and other consumer credit.
- b. Provide rate ceilings for certain creditors in order to assure an adequate supply of credit to consumers.
- c. Further consumer understanding of the terms of credit transactions and foster competition among suppliers of consumer credit so that consumers may obtain credit at reasonable cost.
- d. Protect consumers against unfair practices by some suppliers, solicitors or collectors of consumer credit, having due regard for the interests of legitimate and scrupulous creditors.
- e. Permit and encourage the development of fair and economically sound consumer credit practices.
- f. Conform the regulation of disclosure in consumer credit transactions to the Truth in Lending Act.
- g. Make the law, including administrative rules, more uniform among the various jurisdictions.
- 3. A reference to a requirement imposed by this chapter includes reference to a related rule of the administrator adopted pursuant to this chapter.
