

233.1A Required training and certification in cardiopulmonary resuscitation and first aid — adoption service provider employees.

An adoption service provider shall require and verify that all employees of the adoption service provider responding to the relinquishment of physical custody of a newborn infant in accordance with section 233.2 are trained and maintain certification in cardiopulmonary resuscitation and first aid for infants and adults.

2023 Acts, ch 46, §7