

204.15A Hemp products — order of confiscation and disposal.

1. The department of health and human services may order the confiscation and disposal of a hemp product based on any of the following:

- a. It is falsely advertised, sold, or distributed as a consumable hemp product.
- b. It exceeds the maximum tetrahydrocannabinol concentration allowed under section 124.204, subsection 7, or this chapter.
- c. It is a consumable hemp product manufactured, sold, or distributed by a person who is not registered with the department of health and human services as is required in section 204.7.

2. The department of health and human services shall act in consultation with the department of public safety. The department of health and human services may request assistance from the department of public safety or a local law enforcement agency as necessary to carry out the provisions of this section. The department of health and human services, upon request, shall deliver any sample of the item to the department of public safety or a local law enforcement agency.

3. A person required to be registered with the department of health and human services as provided in section 204.7 shall pay the department of health and human services all actual and reasonable costs of the destruction of the item. If that department assumes any amount of the costs, it may charge that amount to the person.
