

675.2 Legislative purpose and intent.

The purpose and intent of this chapter is all of the following:

1. To restore the compelling governmental interest test and to guarantee its application in all cases where the free exercise of religion is substantially burdened by state action.
2. To provide a claim or defense to a person whose exercise of religion is substantially burdened by state action.

2024 Acts, ch 1003, §4, 7, 8