441—101.4(252B,252H) Review of permanent child support obligations. Permanent child support obligations that are ongoing and being enforced by child support services or the child support agency of another state will be reviewed by child support services to determine whether or not to adjust the obligation. Child support services will determine the appropriate obligation amount using the child support guidelines. Iowa must have continuing, exclusive jurisdiction to modify the order under Iowa Code chapter 252K.

101.4(1) Periodic review. A permanent child support obligation being enforced by child support services and meeting the conditions in Iowa Code section 252H.12 may be reviewed upon the initiative of child support services if:

a. The right to any ongoing child support obligation is currently assigned to the state due to the receipt of public assistance.

b. The support order does not already contain medical support provisions.

c. A review is otherwise necessary to comply with state or federal law.

101.4(2) Review by request. A review will be conducted upon the request of the child support agency of another state or upon the written request of either parent subject to the order submitted on a form prescribed by the department. One review may be conducted every two years when the review is being conducted at the request of either parent. The request for review may be no earlier than two years from the filing date of the support order or most recent modification or the last completed review, whichever is later.

101.4(3) Review outcome.

a. Procedures to adjust the support obligation will be initiated only when the financial and other information available to child support services indicates that the:

(1) Present child support obligation varies from the Iowa Supreme Court mandatory child support guidelines by more than 20 percent, and

(2) Variation is due to a change in financial circumstances that has lasted at least three months and can reasonably be expected to last for an additional three months.

b. Procedures to modify a support order may be initiated when the order does not include provisions for medical support.

441—101.5(252B,252H) Notice requirements—review and adjustment. Child support services will provide written notification to each parent affected by a permanent child support obligation being enforced by child support services as follows:

101.5(1) Notice of right to request review. Child support services will notify each parent of the right to request review of the order and the appropriate place and manner in which the request should be made. Notification will be provided on forms prescribed by the department or through another printed or electronic format.

101.5(2) Notice of review. One of the following will apply:

a. At least 15 days before the review is conducted, child support services will serve notice of its intent to review the order on each parent affected by the child support obligation. This notice will include a request that the parties complete a financial statement and provide verification of income. The notice will be served in accordance with Iowa Code section 252B.26 or 252H.15.

b. If the conditions of Iowa Code section 252H.14A(1) are met, child support services may conduct a review using information accessible to child support services without:

(1) Issuing a notice under paragraph 101.5(2)“a.” or

(2) Requesting additional information from the parent.

101.5(3) Notice of decision. After child support services completes the review of the child support obligation in accordance with rule 441—101.4(252B,252H), child support services will issue a notice of decision in accordance with Iowa Code section 252H.14A or 252H.16 stating whether or not an adjustment is appropriate and, if so, child support services’ intent to enter an administrative order for adjustment.

101.5(4) Challenges to outcome of review. Each parent will be allowed to request a second review challenging the determination of child support services. The procedure for challenging the determination is as follows:

a. The parent challenging the determination must submit the request for a second review in writing to child support services stating the reasons for the request and providing written evidence necessary to support the challenge. The request must be submitted:

(1) Within 10 days from the date of a notice of decision issued pursuant to Iowa Code section 252H.16, or

(2) Within 30 days from service of a notice of decision issued pursuant to Iowa Code section 252H.14A.

b. Child support services will review the written evidence submitted with the request and all financial information available to child support services and make a determination of one of the following:

(1) To enter an administrative order for adjustment of the obligation.

(2) That adjustment of the child support obligation is inappropriate.

c. Child support services will send written notice of the outcome of the second review to each parent affected by the child support obligation at the parent's last-known mailing address.

d. For a review initiated under Iowa Code section 252H.15, if either parent disputes the second decision, the objecting parent may request a court hearing within 15 days from the date the notice of decision is issued or within 10 days of the date the second notice of decision is issued, whichever is later.

e. For a review initiated under Iowa Code section 252H.14A, either parent may request a court hearing within 10 days of the issuance of the second notice of decision.

f. If child support services receives a timely written request or child support services determines that a court hearing is necessary, child support services will certify the matter to the district court. An objecting parent may seek recourse by filing a private petition for modification through the district court.

441—101.6(252B,252H) Financial information—review and adjustment. Child support services will attempt to obtain and verify information concerning the financial circumstances of the parents subject to the order to be reviewed necessary to conduct the review.

101.6(1) Financial statements. Except for a review initiated under Iowa Code section 252H.14A, both parents subject to the order to be reviewed must provide a financial statement and verification of income within ten days of service of the notice of child support services' intent to review the obligation. If a review is initiated under Iowa Code section 252H.14A and the first notice of decision is challenged as described in subrule 101.5(4), both parents will be requested to provide a financial statement and verification of income within ten days of child support services' request.

a. Verification of income will include but not be limited to the following: copies of state and federal income tax returns, W-2 statements, pay stubs, or a signed statement from an employer or other source of income.

b. Child support services may also request that the parent requesting review provide an affidavit regarding the financial circumstances of the nonrequesting parent when child support services is otherwise unable to obtain financial information concerning the nonrequesting parent. The requesting parent must complete the affidavit if the parent possesses sufficient information to do so.

101.6(2) Independent sources. Child support services may utilize other resources to obtain or confirm information concerning the financial circumstances of the parents subject to the order to be reviewed.

a. These resources include but are not limited to the following: the Iowa workforce development department, the Iowa department of revenue, the Internal Revenue Service, the employment, revenue, and child support recovery agencies of other states, and the Social Security Administration.

b. In the absence of other verification of income and deductions allowed under the mandatory support guidelines, child support services may estimate the net earned income of a parent for the purpose of determining the amount of support that would be due under the guidelines by deducting 20 percent from the gross earned income confirmed by an independent source. A parent may challenge this estimate by providing verification of actual earned income deductions.

101.6(3) Availability of medical insurance. Both parents subject to the order to be reviewed must provide documentation regarding the availability of health insurance coverage for the children covered under the order, and the cost of the coverage, within ten days of a written request by child support services. Verification may include but not be limited to: a copy of the health benefit plan including the effective date of the plan, a letter from the employer detailing the availability of health insurance, or any other source that will serve to verify health insurance information and the cost of the coverage.

- d. The end date of the order is less than 12 months in the future or the youngest child is 17½ years of age.

101.7(2) Civil action. The review and adjustment action that is certified to court for hearing will proceed as an ordinary civil action in equity, and child support services attorney will represent the state of Iowa in those proceedings.

101.7(3) Private counsel. After the notice has been issued as described in subrule 101.5(2) or 101.5(3), any party may choose to be represented personally by private counsel. Any party who retains private counsel must notify child support services of this fact in writing.

101.9(4) The request is for the sole purpose of modifying the amount of delinquent support that has accrued under a support order.

101.9(5) The request is for the review of a temporary support order.

[ARC 8967C, IAB 2/19/25, effective 4/1/25]

101.19(1) Nonsupport issues. The request is based entirely on issues such as custody, visitation, or parenting time rights.

101.19(2) Request only for delinquent support. The request is for the sole purpose of modifying the amount of delinquent support that has accrued under a support order.

101.19(3) Temporary order. The request is for the modification of a temporary support order.

101.19(4) Two-year time frame. The request is for a cost-of-living alteration and it has been less than two years since the order was filed with the court or last reviewed, modified, or altered.

101.19(5) Change of circumstances. The request is based on a substantial change in circumstances and:

a. The requestor's net income has not changed by at least 50 percent, as required in paragraph 101.13(1) "a," or

b. The requestor has not provided adequate documentation of the change in income, as required in subrule 101.15(1), or

c. The change in income has not yet lasted for three months, as required in paragraph 101.13(1) "b," or

d. The change in income is not expected to last another three months, as required in paragraph 101.13(1) "b," or 441—101.20(252H) Withdrawing requests—administrative modification. If the requesting party contacts child support services to withdraw the request, child support services will notify the nonrequesting party of the requesting party's desire to withdraw the modification request. If the nonrequesting party indicates, in writing, a desire to continue with the modification process, child support services will proceed, and if appropriate, modify the support order. If there is no response from the nonrequesting party or if the nonrequesting party also wants the process to end, child support services will end the modification process. If child support services initiated the modification action, child support services may terminate the process if, after notifying both parents, neither parent indicates a desire to continue with the modification.

441—101.21(252B,252H) Child care add-on. Child support services will review a child care add-on or expense agreement contained in any permanent child support order that is subject to review under rule 441—101.7(252B,252H) or 441—101.13(252H) as follows:

a. If the custodial parent provides the necessary information to determine the amount of child care expenses as described in 441—paragraph 99.4(2) "c," child support services will review the information and apply the child care add-on based on the guidelines, if appropriate. Any resulting child care add-on will replace the existing child care add-on.

b. If the custodial parent does not provide the necessary information to determine the amount of child care expenses as described in 441—paragraph 99.4(2) "c," the resulting modified child support amount will no longer include an added amount for child care expenses.

101.21(2) Order with child care expense agreement. Child support services will review an order with an existing child care expense agreement entered in lieu of a child care add-on as follows:

a. If the custodial parent provides the necessary information to determine the amount of child care expenses as described in 441—paragraph 99.4(2) "c," child support services will review the information and apply the child care add-on based on the guidelines, if appropriate. Any resulting child care add-on will replace the existing child care expense agreement.

b. If the custodial parent does not provide the necessary information to determine the amount of child care expenses as described in 441—paragraph 99.4(2) "c," child support services will recommend that any existing child care expense agreement remain unchanged.

101.21(3) Order without a child care add-on or expense agreement. If the custodial parent provides the necessary information to determine the amount of child care expenses as described in 441—paragraph 99.4(2) "c" and there is no current child care expense agreement or child care add-on, child support services will review the information and apply the appropriate child care add-on based on the guidelines.
