

281—22.4(261C) Eligible postsecondary courses. These rules are intended to implement the policy of the state to promote rigorous academic pursuits. Therefore, postsecondary courses eligible for students to enroll in under Iowa Code chapter 261C shall be limited to:

Nonsectarian courses;

Courses that are not comparable to courses offered by the school district where the student attends which are defined in rules adopted by the board of directors of the public school district;

Credit-bearing courses that lead to an educational degree;

Courses in the discipline areas of mathematics, science, social sciences, humanities, vocational-technical education, and also the courses in career option programs offered by area schools established under the authorization provided in Iowa Code chapter 260C.

A school district or accredited nonpublic school district shall grant academic or vocational-technical credit to an eligible pupil enrolled in an eligible postsecondary course.
