

371—6.12(173) Early removal of exhibits. Gatekeepers and police are instructed to restrain any person from leaving the grounds with stock or other articles that have been on exhibition, before the hour of release, without written permission of the superintendent of the department.