

567—73.10(109,455B) Abandonment prohibited. The abandonment of a dam, or the intent to permanently cease or cause to cease all acts of construction, operation, and maintenance of a dam, is prohibited. If any person wishes to be relieved of the responsibilities inherent in the ownership or control of a dam structure, those responsibilities shall be undertaken by another person through sale, transfer or other means or the dam shall be removed.