

571—36.4(462A) Wake. For the purposes of these special rules, a wake means “any movement of water created by a vessel which adversely affects the activities of another person who is involved in activities approved for that area or which may adversely affect the natural features of the shoreline.”