

223—22.1(303) Purpose. Policies exist to provide the widest possible public access to historical library, special collections and state archives of Iowa materials within the constraints of preservation of the materials. The collection and conservation policies of the library and archives shall be in accordance with 223—Chapter 13.