

661—251.104(100B) Recordkeeping. Each fire department will maintain training records for each individual member of the department who participates in emergency incidents. These training records will identify, for all training completed by the individual firefighter, the person or persons who provided the training, the dates during which the training was completed, the location or locations where the training was delivered, and a description of the content of the training.

[ARC 9964C, IAB 1/7/26, effective 2/11/26]