

361—12.9(668A) Disbursement of money. No money will be disbursed from the fund after disposition of all applications until the time period for filing a motion for reconsideration has expired. After the time period for filing a motion for reconsideration has expired but while a motion for reconsideration by any applicant is pending, the executive council in its discretion may disburse money from the fund to applicants who have not filed a motion for reconsideration. Money may be disbursed to applicants while a motion for reconsideration is pending only to the extent that resolution of any pending motion could not affect the disbursement of money to other applicants.
