

641—21.4(135) Who reports and under what circumstances. Hospitals treating, transferring, or having pronounced dead any person determined to have sustained a reportable case of traumatic brain or spinal cord injury are required to submit information as identified by the agency.