

541—1.1(8) Purpose. This chapter describes the organization and operation of the department of management (hereafter referred to as the “department”), including the coordination of the policy planning, management of interagency programs, economic reports and program development.