

11—46.14(70A) Reinstatement of company participation. A company that has been terminated from participation in the payroll deduction program may be reinstated when the company has again met program qualifications as set forth in this chapter.