

11—51.1(8A) State personnel system. The state personnel system shall include and apply to all positions in the executive branch of state government, except those specifically excluded by law.