

11—64.5(8A) Health benefit appeals. A member who disagrees with a group health benefit company's decision on the application of group contract benefits may:

1. File a written appeal with the respective company as defined in the group contract, or
2. File a written appeal with the commissioner of insurance at the department of commerce.