

111—9.3(216B) General program policies. Student use of dog guides will not be allowed during program activities of the adult orientation and adjustment center. However, users of dog guides shall otherwise have access to all department facilities, subject to applicable state or federal laws and regulations.