

129—2.17(8B,17A,22) Notice to suppliers of information. When the office requests a person to supply information about that person, the office shall notify the person of the use that will be made of the information, which persons outside the office might routinely be provided this information, which parts of the requested information are required and which are optional, and the consequences of a failure to provide the information requested. This notice may be given in these rules, on the written form used to collect the information, on a separate fact sheet or letter, in brochures, in formal agreements, in contracts, in handbooks, in manuals, verbally, or by other appropriate means.
