

187—7.14(17A,22) Personally identifiable information. This rule describes the nature and extent of personally identifiable information that is collected, maintained, and retrieved by the agency by personal identifier in record systems as defined in rule 187—7.1(17A,22). The division of banking does not maintain groups of records to be retrieved by individual identifiers. Division records concerning regulated entities may contain financial and other personal information about individuals who are officers, shareholders, employees, or customers of regulated entities or do business with them. The division of banking does not currently have a data processing system which matches, collates, or permits the comparison of personally identifiable information in one record system with personally identifiable information in another record system. The record systems maintained by the agency are:

7.14(1) Personnel files. The agency maintains files containing information about employees, families and dependents, and applicants for positions with the agency. The files include an individual's employment history, such as hiring and recruitment correspondence, salary, payroll and benefit information, record of personnel actions, military status, affirmative action statistics, education and training completed, professional certification achievements, professional organizational involvement, performance evaluation reports, and other information concerning the employer-employee relationship. This information is collected pursuant to Iowa Code section 524.208, and some of the information is confidential under Iowa Code sections 22.7(11) and 22.7(18). The information is maintained on paper; and certain parts are also contained on the agency's data processing system, as well as the state's mainframe automated data processing system.

7.14(2) Payroll records. Records showing individual earnings, hours worked, leave usage, class, position, salary range, deductions, net pay with agency summaries, and other related information. These records contain personally identifiable information collected under the authority of Iowa Code section 524.208, and some of the information may be confidential under Iowa Code section 22.7(11). The information is maintained on paper, with certain records maintained on the state's payroll automated data processing system.
