

189—14.8(533) Voluntary submission of information. Any person who becomes involved in an examination review or in a preliminary or formal investigation may, on the person's own initiative, submit a written statement to the division which sets forth the person's interests and position with regard to the subject matter involved.