

191—74.6(505) Violation of chapter. A violation of this chapter may be reported to the market regulation bureau of the division. The division, upon finding that the employer has failed to offer an eligible employee access to health care or health insurance, may do any of the following:

1. Issue a cease and desist order instructing the employer to cure the failure to provide access to health care and desist from future violations of this chapter.
2. Issue an order requiring the employer who has previously been the subject of a cease and desist order to pay an eligible employee's reasonable health insurance premiums necessary to prevent or cure a lapse in health care coverage due to the employer's failure to offer access to health care.
3. Assess the reasonable costs of the division's investigation and enforcement to the employer.
