

199—4.4(17A) Service and filing of petitions. At the same time a petition for a declaratory order is filed, the petitioner shall serve the petition, in accordance with the “Service of documents” subrule in 199—Chapter 7 and the “Electronic service” rule in 199—Chapter 14, upon any person who, based upon a reasonable investigation, would be a necessary party to the proceeding under applicable substantive law. The petitioner is to file with the commission a list of all persons served.

[ARC 7749C, IAB 4/3/24, effective 5/8/24; Editorial change: IAC Supplement 7/24/24]