

201—10.2(17A) Exemption from rule making. The department finds that policies, procedures and statements which relate only to inmates of a penal institution shall be exempted from the rule-making process as provided in Iowa Code section 17A.2(7) “k.”

Policies and procedures governing activities of incarcerated inmates are located in the departmental manual and in institutional manuals.