

205—10.2(906) Parole supervision. An inmate granted parole or work release is under the supervision of the department of corrections or a receiving state pursuant to the interstate compact for adult offender supervision. Parole supervision continues until the expiration of the maximum sentence, subject to early discharge by the board or the district department.

[ARC 8442C, IAB 12/11/24, effective 1/15/25]