

21—44.12(206) Secondary containment for aerial applicator aircraft. If the spray component of an aircraft is being drained or repaired during aircraft maintenance, secondary containment with permanent devices or portable devices suitable for use with pesticides is required.